

How to Download Audio Books from OverDrive

*Note: To review a list of compatible devices visit the following website:
www.overdrive.com/resources/drc*

1. Visit the Nebraska OverDrive Website:
nebraska.lib.overdrive.com
2. Your computer must have the OverDrive Media Console downloaded. This is a one-time step. To download, click on “OverDrive Media Console” on the left side of the screen under “Digital Software” and follow the on screen instructions.
3. Log in to your account by clicking on “My Account,” choosing your library and typing in a simple password (ask a librarian).
4. Search or browse for a title that you would like to download. Clicking on a title name or book cover will take you to a page with more information. (see below) You can view the release date, duration, file size, description and more. If this particular title can be burned to CD you will see this symbol: You can choose to listen to an excerpt of the book, recommend the title to a friend, add  to your cart or place a hold on it if it is currently unavailable.

5. When you find an available title that you want to check out, click on “Add to Cart.”
6. You can continue browsing for more titles or proceed to checkout. You may check out up to 3 titles at a time. The checkout period is 14 days and there is no way to return them before that time is up. If you check out your maximum of 3, you won’t be able to get any more until the 14 days are up.
7. At any time you can click on “My Cart” and click on “Proceed to Checkout.” Review any important notes and then click on “Confirm check out.” The title(s) will then be available to download.

DESCRIPTION
There's a new shop on Seattle's Blossom Street - a flower store called Susannah's Garden, right next door to A Good Yarn. Susannah Nelson, the owner, has just hired a young widow named Colette Blake. A couple of months earlier, Colette had abruptly quit her previous job - after a brief affair with her boss. To her dismay, he's suddenly begun placing weekly orders for flower

8. Click on “Download.” The OverDrive Media Console will open and you will be asked to choose a folder on your computer where the title will be stored. You can use the default folder or browse for a new location. (My Documents or My Media are good choices.) Click on OK.

9. The Download Parts screen will open. Each audio book is divided into parts of approximately one hour of listening time each. You may choose to download all of the parts at once or if you have a slower Internet connection you can download just one or two parts at a time. Click on OK. You can track the progress of your download at the bottom of the OverDrive Media Console.

10. After the part(s) have finished downloading you can choose to listen to the book in one of the following ways:

-  a. Directly on your computer - Click on Play
-  b. On an MP3 player - Plug your device into the computer and click on Transfer
-  c. On a CD player with a CD you’ve burned (only available with some titles) – Insert your blank CD-R or CD-RW into the computer and click on Burn

11. If you didn’t download all of the parts to a book at once, you can go back to download more by clicking on the book title and then on Download Part(s).

12. When your audio book has expired you may delete the title listing from your OverDrive Media Console by clicking on the book title and then click on Delete. Or, you may choose to keep the listing in your Console as a way of keeping track of the titles you’ve listened to. (Deleting titles from your Console does NOT delete them from your account. Titles are automatically removed from your account when the 14 day loan period has expired.)
